THE DINO'S IN DANGER!!!

The awesome
TURBO RACER
is in town!

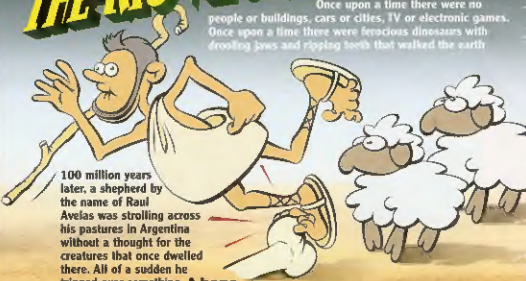

THE RIO NEGRO GIANT

Are you game enough for Drag Racing

A shepherd stumbled upon THE RIO NEGRO GIANT!

Once upon a time there were no people or buildings, cars or cities, TV or electronic games. Once upon a time there were ferocious dinosaurs with drooling jaws and ripping teeth that walked the earth

A cartoon illustration of a shepherd named Raul Avelas. He is depicted as a man with a large nose, wearing a white tunic and sandals, tripping over a large bone. He is holding a staff in his right hand. Two sheep are following him from behind, looking on with concern. The background is a simple landscape with a blue sky and a yellow ground.

100 million years later, a shepherd by the name of Raul Avelas was strolling across his pastures in Argentina without a thought for the creatures that once dwelled there. All of a sudden he tripped over something. A bone. A GIANT bone! What on earth did it come from?

Raul summoned a scientist friend of his. He was FASCINATED by the huge bones they found because there turned out to be lots of them on Raul's land in the mountains. Could they be what he suspected...?

A photograph of a dinosaur fossil excavation site. In the foreground, a large, light-colored bone is being uncovered from the ground. In the background, several people are working on the site. A speech bubble from a person in the background contains the text: "I do believe it's a dinosaur - a gigasaur! Bigger than any we've ever seen or even heard of!"

"I do believe it's a dinosaur - a gigasaur! Bigger than any we've ever seen or even heard of!"

It must have had a tiny head and a neck miles long!

TRUE FACTS

Seven years ago the first traces of the gigasaur were discovered in Patagonia, near the Rio Negro in Argentina.

Since then scientists have dug and dug, uncovering tons of bones from the biggest dinosaur ever to walk the earth. It has been dubbed The Rio Negro Giant because of where it was found.

It is bigger than the biggest of the others, even the carnivorous Gigantosaurus Brontosaurus. It is HUGE: as tall as a five storey building! It had to lower its neck to eat leaves from trees, because it was a vegetarian! And it was extremely long: almost 50 metres - that's half the length of a football pitch!

The scientists have assembled parts from an entire Rio Negro Giant and flown them to a museum, the Florentino Ameghio, where you can go and see it - if you dare!

MAYDAY - MAYDAY

THE DINO'S IN DANGER!!!

Trouble! Sam Sinister is stripping Part Valley of living dinos. He and his All Terrain Trappers are hunting anything that moves. No creature is safe from his hideous traps and deadly weapons. He intends to sell the dinos to zoos all over the globe, and it's only a matter of time before his plan is fulfilled. Only one thing can thwart his devilish doings - a handful of heroic scientists headed by Johnny Thunder.

But will they really be able to save the dinosaurs??

Professor, professor - take the microcopter and get airborne! Right away! We need to know where those villains are hiding the dinos!

I'll fly off and check out the volcanoes

Right - I'll take the Trackmaster and comb the Jungle! Don't forget your radios, ammo, and guns!

Good luck, everyone!
And take care!

Somewhere in Past Valley ...

Ha ha ha! It's as easy as pie!

Yet another catch!

Fire your poison dart and calm this monster down!

Hey, calm down, boy! Bang! Your sleeping pill!

Well done! And let's press on! We've got to finish off here today

Hey, what have we here? A clumsy old Stegosaurus! Come to me-you're going to the zoo!

Ha ha ha! 33 Stegosauruses in three days! My best treasure hunt to date!

High up on the slopes of the volcano loud trumpeting echoes out-a pitched battle is in full swing

Come here, you devil!

Look out, boss! It's on the attack!

Quick! The rifle! Fill its tail with lead!

Help! Talk about throwing a wobbly!!!

Oh, no! It doesn't even notice my bullets!

Let's get out of here! Back to the Bugatti!

RACE AND COMPETE
TILL YOU CRASH!!!

STUNT-RACE

Turbo Racer is the ultimate LEGO TECHNIC gladiator vehicle.

Always ready for a roaring race on the track!

When you've assembled your awesome Turbo Racer you'll be ready to challenge one of your friends to a duel!

You can have a contest to see who's fastest - or to see who's most precise! And seeing who's most precise is definitely the most fun!

There are 3 kinds of precision
duelling:

TURBO RACER

- you have the bumper in front and the arrow with the trigger at the back

WHEEL SHOOTER

- you have the wheel holder with wheels and trigger at the front and directional fins at the back

MONSTER GRABBER

- you have the monster hook at the front and the turbo engine at the back

This is how you joust:

- Take up positions opposite one another on a smooth surface and pick a control ramp.
- Start your engines and dispatch your racer with the control ramp - right at your opponent!
- Your opponent has to catch your Turbo Racer and use the control ramp to return the vehicle to you.
- Remember to use yo-r hands, because whoever fails to catch the Turbo Racer first has lost the game!

TURBO RACER:

you hit the arrow trigger with the moveable arm on the control ramp, sending the arrow hurtling away

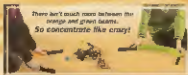

The racer will be moving like guided lightning - so you have to be quick with the control ramp - and precise!

You decide whether there are extra points if the arrow hits a target

you steer the racer beneath the beam and hit the wheel holder trigger, sending the purple and turquoise wheel flying!

There isn't much room between the orange and green beams. So concentrate like crazy!

MONSTER GRABBER:

you capture your opponent's monster with the monster hook when you dispatch your racer with the control ramp

When you've captured your opponent's monster he has to see if he can shake the monster off the hook!

THE BATTLE CONTINUES

The battle for the galaxy continues. From their cool control center, Rebel pilots fly amazing A-wing and blazing B-wing fighters against Imperial TIE fighters. But look out! Bounty hunter Boba Fett has joined forces with the dangerous Darth Vader. This dastardly duo are after Luke Skywalker and his friend Han Solo. The bad guys catch Han and freeze him in carbonite. Now, it is up to you and Luke to rescue Han and stop the evil Empire!

BOBA FETT

Boba Fett is the most mysterious bounty hunter in the galaxy. This fearsome tracker wears the mean, green armor of the ancient Mandalorian warriors, but Boba Fett has updated his armor with the latest high-tech gadgets. Fett always has something dangerous up his sleeve - like a laser blaster, mini flamethrower, or grappling hook, and his Blas Tech EE-3 rifle never leaves his hand. After Vader freezes Han in carbonite, Fett uses his ship, Slave 1, to deliver Han to Jabba the Hutt.

HAN SOLO

This crafty Corellian smuggler has escaped from many tough spots before, but in Bespin's Cloud City, Han's luck may have run out. Vader wants to freeze Luke Skywalker and take him to the Emperor. To test the carbon-freezing process on a human, Vader captures Han and freezes him first. Helplessly frozen in carbonite, Vader hands Han over to Boba Fett. The bounty hunter loads Han into the cargo compartment of Slave 1 and takes his frozen prisoner to Jabba the Hutt. In his desert palace on Tatooine, Jabba hangs Han on the wall like a picture!

7104 DESERT SKIFF™

A Desert Skiff sails smoothly over the sand to the perilous Pit of Carthoo. Prisoners of Jabba the Hutt, Luke Skywalker and Han Solo are about to be led to Sarlace. But wait! Luke somersaults off the plank and R2-D2 throws him his lightsaber. Can Luke and Han fight their way out of another scrape?

7134 A WING FIGHTER™

This small, wedge-shaped fighter is one of the fastest ships in the galaxy. Because of its lightweight design, it can outrun any Imperial ship. Rebel pilots like to fly the A-wing in hit-and-run maneuvers. It can outmaneuver a TIE fighter, but this ship jacks the enemy's operating systems. Then, the A-wing quickly flies in, blasts the target and gets out. The problem with an A-wing is that it has no protective shields, so it has to be fast to escape!

7144 SLAVE I™

Boba Fett's ship is as mysterious and menacing as he is. Slave I is one of the most recognizable ships in the galaxy. Most creatures stay far away from Slave I when it is docked in their spaceport. The ship has plenty of room for cargo or captured. Coruscant struggles to win in carbonite.

7-1/2" B-WING™ FIGHTER

At the Battle of Endor, B-wing Fighters led the assault on the second Death Star. One of the Rebels' most heavily-armed starfighters, the B-wing is also one of its most unusual ships. It is really one long, flat wing with a steering cockpit on one end and a laser cannon at the other. As a B-wing prepares for battle, two stabilizers with cannons fold out of the wing. The B-wing has a special gyro-stabilization system. During a battle, the cockpit remains steady while the rest of the ship rotates around it. Besides its three laser cannons, the B-wing has a laser cannon, two proton torpedoes, ion cannons and two small blaster cannons.

Are you tough enough for DRAG RACING??

Drag racing is the zaniest, toughest contest between super-cool customised racers. Drag racers have massive engines punching over a THOUSAND HORSEPOWER. The result? Top speeds that blow your mind! It's like getting into a jet fighter on wheels. The dragsters race in pairs along a 400 metre track. They start from the starting blocks and in less than 10 seconds the race is over.

Solitaire

last brick on the board wins it all!!

Solitaire was invented by a French soldier in the 19th century!

And you can start playing right away - the rules are just 10 words long!

But you MUST jump another piece - or it doesn't count!

The places you jump over are out of the game - so you put them over here!

It is one of the easiest board games to build in the world! You build it using these pieces:

And you arrange them like this:

You start by taking away one of your pieces to the empty space at the centre of the board.

The pieces can only jump backwards and forwards or from side to side - you can't jump diagonally.

You can jump it into a new empty space. It's really easy - I hope you'll be able to jump over!

Once if you can only jump your opponent's pieces.

When your piece is on the board is forced to jump.

To win the game as many of your that board as you

Building Competition Build A Monster Truck

Build a Monster Truck to take part in the Annual Monster Truck Competition. The Monster Truck should have big wheels and superb engines to power the truck through the different sets of barriers, performance suspension to withstand the shock when the vehicle falls to the ground, and gadgets to ensure the safety of the truck driver.

Name your Monster Truck and send in a photograph of yourself and your Monster Truck to the following address by the 10th October to qualify for the competition.

There are no short cuts in Settlers!
You have to move your pieces round the board.

You must always take away at least one piece from your opponent's army - and they can no more build to replace it.

pieces disappear
because your opponent them - check, sir?

You must get pieces off the board.

The game ends when you can't jump any more pieces. Sometimes it ends in a draw - like this!

Really good Settlers always land at the centre of the board with their last piece
- see if you can do so, too!
